Daniel Keating-Roberts

I teach singers of all levels, from all over the world. Mostly online. But now it's time to see some more singers in real life! So this is your chance to learn like the stars!!

I'm classically trained, and have a masters degree from the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London. And have sung lead roles in opera houses all over the world (including here in Stuttgart!)

You'll find my voice on film soundtracks like 'Harry Potter', 'Lord of the Rings', 'Shaun the sheep', 'How to train your Dragon', and so many more!

I've been singing teacher to Oriel College Oxford, guest coach to music colleges (RCS and RWCMD, HfMT), and vocal coach to London Contemporary Voices (supporting Sam Smith, U2, Elbow, Mumford, Nicole Scherzinger...) And I was a founder member of Voces8.

I've taught platinum sellers, Brit award winners, and love teaching complete beginners!
